Nowadays, botch-up is done nowhere else that much than on life itself. And there is no doubt that it is the medical doctor who has got the most direct access to life. What is indeed appearing in the form of life is nothing but illness. Under the pretext of illness the medical doctor is acting and practicing in all fields: botching, eliminating and eradicating life.

The medical doctors' newest botch-up against life: vaccination, under the pretext of the so-called swine flu.

Additional incriminating evidence against the accused perpetrators:

1. The World Health Organization arbitrarily changed the existing criteria so they could declare a pandemic that didn't exist. The aim and purpose: medicine profits and expansion of the medical terror rulership across the globe. By now that is more than evident. The Council of Europe is conducting an investigation against the World Health Organization. For the same reasons the Dutch parliament has initiated proceedings against the World Health Organization and their assistants and helpers.

2. A vaccination campaign has been planned for years, long before there was any talk of a "swine flu". The contracts for the purchase of whatever by the governments date from the year 2007. That could not be a "vaccine against ...", because at that time there wasn't anything anywhere to be vaccinated against. In the medical profiteers' plain language: you buy our stuff first, then we will fabricate a fitting "illness".

In 2009 there wasn't so much a "vaccination against a new flu" (it didn't exist) as rather was the purchased medical filth disposed of in a big operation, into the bodies of the people. There were dead people, injured people and grievously harmed people.

3. One of the terrorist organisations under criminal charge, the so-called Paul-Ehrlich-Institute (PEI), meanwhile has issued a report: in Germany alone 1377 people have been damaged, there were 48 dead people. Thus the perpetrators have admitted that there were 1377 bodily harms and 48 dead.

There were even many more dead and crippled people but they are trying to cover it up. Autopsies have been omitted, documents are kept under lock and key. In juridical terms: suppression of evidence. Therefore: all files are to be confiscated, without warning!

4. There was no swine flu, no virus, nothing to vaccinate against. The solely real existing "virus" (English: poison) was the medical filth that 48 people died from.

A weighing up and balancing of an alleged "benefit of the vaccination" on the one hand and the thereby caused damage and deaths on the other hand – like the perpetrators did (PEI-report) – is a ridiculing of the injured and the dead: juggling with numbers attempting to save their neck. That was of no use even to a Laval (French Nazi-collaborator: the thousands he had sent into the Gas Chambers should – in favour of him – be compared with those he had not deported. This did not avert his execution).

There is nothing to weigh up, there is no benefit. There is only damage, exactly: 1377 bodily harmed people and 48 dead because of the vaccination, 1377 bodily harmed people and 48 dead because of greediness (in terms of criminal law: base motives, constituent fact of murder). Leadership and in command of the deeds: the medical doctors, these HEAL-terrorists with their greed for world domination.

Concerning criminal law the matter is obvious and the arraignment is mandatory.

The deed: an act of terror with 48 dead and 1377 injured.

The perpetrators: see above, those under criminal charges.

They are to be arrested and brought to trial.
